

Tuesday, September 12:

Evening: Registration (19h)
Ice-Breaker (snacks, drinks, performances by mangrove researchers: "science meets arts")

Wednesday, September 13:

Morning: Registration (9-10h)
Opening Ceremony (Director of ZMT (H. Westphal); Chair of MSG (S.Y. Lee))
Opening Remark on The role of science and knowledge in conservation and restoration (M. Zimmer)
Keynote on the Meanings of Mangroves: Past stories and contemporary images of mangroves of the Chocó Ecoregion

Lunch Break (12-14h)

Afternoon: Session of Short Presentations on Mangrove Biology (as scientific basis for sustainable use, conservation and restoration)

Evening: Reception and Poster Session (18-21h)

Thursday, September 14:

Morning: Keynote on the Payments for ecosystem services as an innovative strategy for mangrove conservation (9h)
Session of Short Presentations on Mangrove Conservation (and its scientific basis)

Lunch Break (12-14h)

Afternoon: Session of Short Presentations on Mangrove Conservation and Sustainable Use (and their scientific basis)

Evening: Reception and Poster Session (17-20h)

Friday, September 15:

Morning: Keynote on Mangrove forest landscape restoration (MFLR) and restoration opportunity mapping in Indonesia (9h)
Session of Short Presentations on Mangrove Restoration (and its scientific basis)

Lunch Break (12-14h)

Afternoon: Session of Short Presentations on Mangrove Restoration and Service-Provisioning (and their scientific basis)
Closing Remarks and Ceremony

Evening: Conference Dinner (20h)

Saturday, September 16:

Field Excursions to "temperate equivalents of tropical mangroves":
Northern German Floodplain Forests or Saltmarshes of the North Sea Coast

Sunday, September 17:

Workshop of the IUCN-SCC Mangrove Specialist Group
(for members and invited guests only)